

Announcing the International Computer Users Certificate (ICUC™) or License (ICUL™) Certification

The International Computer Users Certificate (ICUC™) or License (ICUL™) program is a world-wide certification system in computer skills and proficiency administered by the IPCC – The International Professional Computer Certifications (www.ipcc-academy.com)

The IPCC, works with its partners to provide world-wide certification to professionals with specialist skills and expertise in the computer field and industry. Its goal is to promote career development and advancement through the development of candidate's know-how, specialist practical skills and expertise by way of professional level education, training and work experience

The focus of the IPCC certification programs is on industry relevant professional skills and expertise acquisition and update in a dynamic rapidly advancing technological knowledge and skill-driven international IT job market

The ICUC™/ICUL™ certification is aimed at all computer users who want to acquire an internationally recognized certification as a proof of their skill and proficiency in computer systems.

Our goal is to promote computer know-how for all. We do not only assist you to acquire this know-how painlessly and free of charge but also provide you with a flexible and innovative system to crown your skill and proficiency level with an international certification -- the ICUC™/ICUL™. Visit our website www.icuc-edu.com

Announcing the Computer+™ Certification

The Computer+™ Certification is an IPCC (www.ipcc-academy.com) administered international certification program aimed at providing practical hands-on training and skills in troubleshooting, repair, refurbishment and assembly of computers and peripherals.

The program is in two versions: The campus-based version is of 3 months duration and the online-based version is of 6 months duration.

Candidates on completion of the program will receive the Computer+™ professional certification which qualifies them as computer technicians with the requisite practical skills to troubleshoot desktop and laptops computers and peripherals like printers; repair, refurbish or upgrade them as well as have the necessary expertise to assembly desktop computers from component parts. Visit www.ipcc-academy.com/compcert.htm.